YULETIDE 1921

THE Day of the Child! Does it not carry you back to your own childhood?--to those days when all the world was fair and good, when the sunshine was the brightest, when the rain was the gentlest, when the snow was the whitest? Does it not bring a picture of the times when your own smile was the mirror for the friendly smiles of all others, when you awoke with a song and drowsed to sleep with a sigh of contentment? Does it not picture for you again the simple happiness in life that was yours--when laughter was easy, when a trifle was wealth, when common fare was a feast? We can only wish for you that during this Yuletide your heart may be renewed as the heart of childhood, and that all its blessings may abide with you.

THE HERALD.

TAKING OUR VACATION

Following the usual custom. The Herald is taking a Holiday vacation this week. Only the advertising and legal matter is being published and the paper issued to maintain its legal standing. The vacation gives us a little reprieve from the twelve month grind and at the same time affords opportunity to clean out the corners of the shop and make ready for renewed effort during the New Year. We will be "on the job" next week and the weeks following trying to give you a readable newspaper and one which stands firmly for the right, as we see it, and for the best interest of Beaver and Beaver county.

Not because it is an honored custom, but because we mean it we take this opportunity to again thank you for the part you have played in our business prosperity the past twelve months, and to extend the wish that the New Year may come to you laden with all that will make for your Health, Happiness and Contentment.
